Latonya Brumfield

MSN, RN, CCRN

Helping nurses and healthcare teams lead with clarity, inclusion, courage, and purpose.

Speaker Profile

Latonya is a nurse educator, critical care nurse, consultant, leadership coach, and national conference presenter with more than 20 years of nursing experience. She helps nurses, educators, healthcare leaders, and teams strengthen leadership, inclusion, communication, culture, and purpose-centered professional growth.

Signature Speaking Topics

Leadership at Every Level
 Influence, confidence, and leadership from any role.

Healthy Teams and Professional Culture
 Communication, trust, accountability, and resilience.

Inclusive Leadership and Belonging
 Environments where people feel seen, supported, and valued.

Bias, Diversity, and Health Equity
 How bias, culture, and systems shape care and outcomes.

Neurodiversity in Nursing and Healthcare
 Supportive environments for neurodivergent nurses and learners.

Purpose-Driven Nursing Leadership
 Calling, service, integrity, courage, and meaning in the work.

Audience Outcomes

- Practical strategies that translate to clinical, academic, and leadership settings.
- Stronger communication, professional confidence, and team culture.
- More inclusive leadership practices for nurses, learners, and healthcare teams.
- Renewed clarity around purpose, influence, and professional growth.

Featured Experience

Returning AACN NTI presenter for the 6th year, with accepted and facilitated sessions focused on informal leadership, neurodiversity-inclusive leadership, and unconscious bias in nursing.
